

remand and the final agency decision that resulted therefrom.” Furthermore, the Rule states that “if the agency decision is fully favorable to the plaintiff, the Court shall then reopen the case and enter a final judgment for the plaintiff.” However, if there are any issues still in controversy, “the case shall be reopened for further proceedings on the merits, and a new briefing schedule issued by the Clerk.” E.D. Tenn. L.R. 9.1(d).

In the present matter, the Plaintiff was denied disability insurance benefits but awarded Supplemental Security Income. Therefore, there are still issues that remain in controversy. Accordingly, the Court finds that the Defendant’s Motion to Reopen Case Subsequent to Remand [Doc. 17] is well-taken and is GRANTED. The Clerk SHALL issue a new briefing schedule.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
